PLAN AGAINST RURAL AREA DEPRESSION

Secretary Anderson Declares Full Industrial and Business Employment Essential

MEASURE IS ENDORSED

Washington, Aug. 23.—(P)—Secretary of Agriculture Anderson declared today that full industrial and business employment in the postwar period is essential if another agricultural depression is to be averted.

The secretary made the statement in endorsing the proposed full employment act before the senate banking and currency committee.

"The farmers of this country," he said, "have a vital interest in the maintenance of full employment. Our agricultural industry is now geared to produce 30 to 35 per cent more than before the war."

"In the years ahead, when we get through the reconversion period of the next 18 to 20 months, one of the major problems facing this country will be that of providing adequate market outlets for the increased volume of agricultural production."

"The maintenance of full employment will be essential if we are to guard against another period of agricultural depression and low farm income, x x x When urban people have jobs and are making good incomes, they buy more clothes which come from wool and cotton; they eat more fruit, meat and vegetables, drink more milk and even smoke more cigarettes than when they are unemployed or working only part time. The wartime experience of the past few years has given us abundant and convincing proof of this."

Anderson, declaring there is a direct relationship between industrial employment and agricultural prosperity, said:

"When unemployment rose to almost 14,000,000 workers in 1942 and 1933, net farm income dropped to less than $3,000,000—the lowest level since farm income records were begun in 1940. When unemployment fell to less than a million persons in 1943, net farm income rose to more than $3,000,000."

Expect Parliament To Ratify Charter

London, Aug. 23.—(P)—Early and possibly unanimous ratification of the United Nations charter was forecast early today as parliament prepared to resume at 11 p. m. (9:15 a. m. EDT) a debate punctuated by solemn warnings of the vast potentialities of the atomic bomb.

Some members advocated international control of the weapon, while others urged a system in which leaders of both major parties joined in urging Britain to throw her weight into the international organization for the preservation of peace.

Former Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, now a member of the opposition in commons, said that controversies could be solved amicably among nations through world league. "Perhaps we need not worry about the atomic bomb."

The Daily Herald predicted that there is every prospect that ratification will be unanimous.

Britain is the last of the Big Five to take up ratification. Approval already has been given by the United States, Soviet Russia, China and France, as well as by more than a half dozen smaller nations.

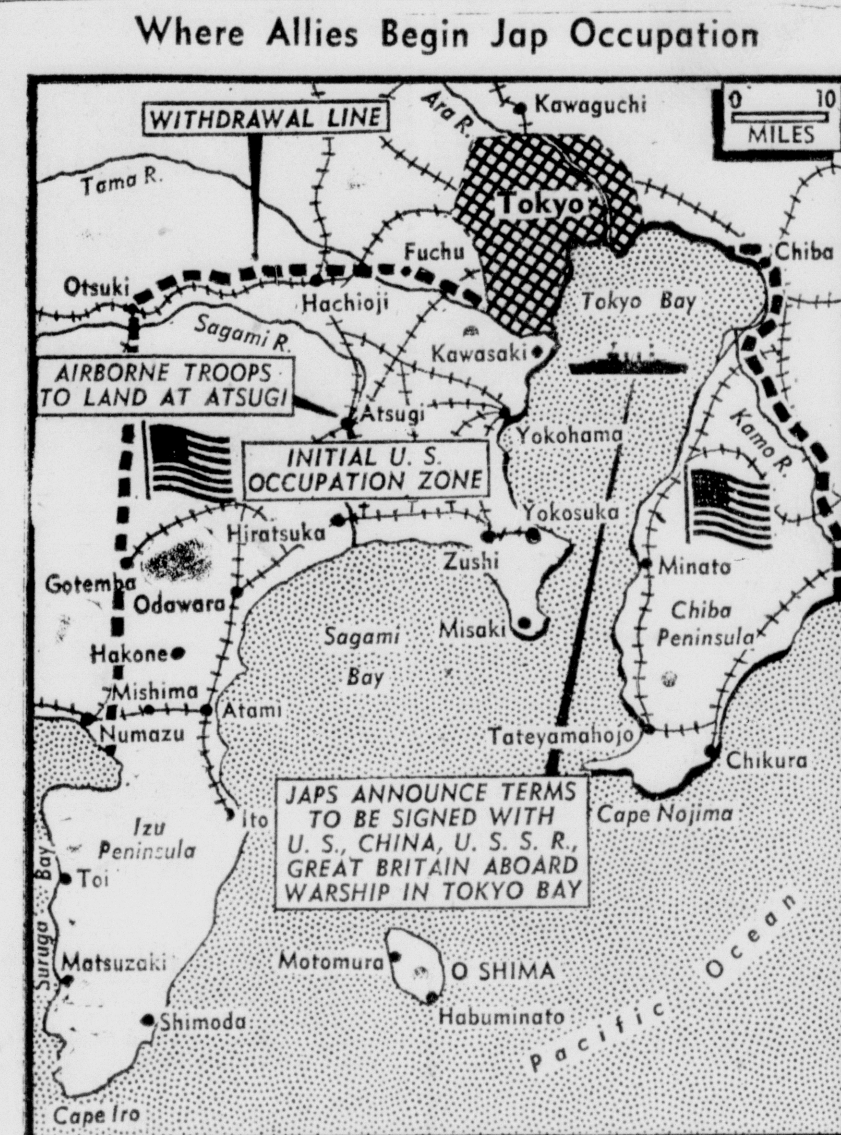

Even Strain of Conference Fails To Erase Truman Ease

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
Washington, Aug. 23.—(P)—Four months in the White House have not changed Harry S. Truman's attitude toward himself or toward people.

Even his participation at Berlin as a central figure in another drama of the "Big Three" did not ease the easy affability ingrained in his personality.

He finds it difficult to understand, he confided to reporters on the historic voyage of the Cruiser Augusta, why folks who took him kindly enough as a Missouri neighbor, as a senator and as a president should make such a fuss over him because he happens to be president.

The day the president decided to go from Potsdam to Frankfurt to inspect American troops, correspondents had to be up at 5:15 a. m. for the trip from Berlin to Potsdam airport in an army truck and 268-mile, 90-minute flight to Frankfurt. They climbed into automobiles for a 45-mile tour. They Scenes of hearing events in Japan, as reported by the Tokyo radio, are shown on the map above. This source says Allied air-borne troops will land first at Atsugi Airfield, 14 miles southwest of Tokyo, next Sunday. Jap troops are to be withdrawn beyond the broken line shown. Two Allied fleets are to enter Sagami Bay and formal surrender terms will be signed in Tokyo Bay, probably aboard the U. S. battleship Missouri, on Friday, Aug. 31, with representatives of all Allies participating.

260,000 Estimated Killed and 412,000 Hurt In Jap Raids

By the Associated Press
Some 260,000 persons were killed and 412,000 others were injured on the Japanese home islands "as a result of enemy air raids during the course of the war in Greater East Asia," the Tokyo radio said today in a broadcast recorded by The Associated Press.

Altogether, nearly 10,000,000 persons, almost a sixth of the population, suffered directly from the raids, the radio said.

The broadcast, quoting figures thus far available at air defense headquarters, said the two atom bombs dropped on the homeland killed 90,000 and injured 180,000. The total killed was set at 260,000; injured, 412,000; rendered homeless, 9,200,000.

The broadcast said 2,200,000 houses were completely demolished or burned to the ground, and 90,000 were partially damaged.

Britain, which was under Nazi air attack for more than five years, suffered by the last available estimate, 146,760 casualties from bombings and V-weapons. The figures were 60,585 dead and 86,175 wounded as of last April 20. Unaccounted thousands of others were made homeless.

San Francisco, Aug. 23.—(P)—An extraordinary session of the Japanese diet will be convened Sept. 2 and 3 to "drive home to the nation" the "stark reality" of Japan's defeat and to clarify the circumstances leading to the end of the war, the Japanese Domei news agency said today.

The federal communications commission recorded the English-language broadcast, beamed to America by Prince Naruhiko Higashi-Kuni had obtained "imperial sanction" for the two-day extraordinary session.

Japanese newspapers and political leaders have been calling for an emergency session of the parliament to "meet the new situation," establish controls for reconstruction and to set up a new political system.

The Diet Herald predicted that there is every prospect that ratification will be unanimous.

Britain is the last of the Big Five to take up ratification. Approval already has been given by the United States, Soviet Russia, China and France, as well as by more than a half dozen smaller nations.

EMPLOYMENT OFFICES ARE HAVING RUSH

As Number of War Workers Laid Off Increase, Strikes Continue to Flare in East

MORE TERMINATIONS

Philadelphia, Aug. 23.—(P)—As the number of war workers laid off by contract cancellations increased throughout the nation, strikes continued to flare in this area and crowds continued to jam employment offices.

Nine new war contract terminations amounting to almost $55,000,000 were reported to the Securities and Exchange Commission yesterday, hiking the total to nearly $7,000,000 by the 71 corporations reporting to the SEC.

The four-day strike at the Spiggy Manufacturing Company in Pottstown, caused when 14 ex-servicemen were rehired, appeared headed for a showdown today.

Representatives of the State Mediation Board, Selective Service and the company are scheduled to meet today to iron out difficulties. Company representatives are to meet with delegates from the union, Local 644, United Automobile Workers (CIO) after that meeting.

A spokesman for the 257 striking employees said the rehired veterans have low seniority rights. Nearly 1,500 were laid off last week, he said, adding that the (Turn to Page Eleven)

White House Has Arkansas Guests

Washington, Aug. 23.—(P)—Four members of an Arkansas family who couldn't obtain dinner service in one of Washington's costlier hotels were welcome at the White House today.

They were Staff Sgt. James Hendrix, Jr., 20, his father and mother, and his cousin, Mrs. Andrew Waldo, all of Lepanto, Ark. They were bid to the White House so that the sergeant, along with 27 other army heroes, could receive the Congressional Medal of Honor from President Truman.

The war department said in a statement last night it had learned that the Hendrix family was refused dining room service in the Willard Hotel Tuesday night, although quartered in a suite there as guests of the government.

James Hendrix, Sr., told a reporter the dining room had empty tables and he guessed his group was not served "just because he didn't have on fine enough clothes."

He was in his shirt sleeves, but he said no one mentioned it. The sergeant, who alone wiped out the Nazi artillery positions and saved three wounded comrades in Germany, was in his uniform.

Uncertainty Ends For Three Homes

Washington, Aug. 23.—(P)—The agonized uncertainty of more than three years was ended today for the families of four Tokyo raiders captured by the Japanese in 1942.

The war department told them yesterday that the men, who fell into enemy hands after the mission led by Jimmy Doolittle, had been freed. A rescue team which parachuted to Peiping, China, found them in a prison camp.

They are Lt. Chase J. Nielsen, Hyrum, Utah; Lt. George Barr, formerly of Queens, N. Y.; Sgt. Jacob D. Deshazer, formerly of Madras, Ore., and Lt. Robert L. Hite, Earth, Tex.

Still unaccounted for are four other fliers captured on the same mission. They are Lt. William G. Farrow, Washington, D. C.; Lt. Robert J. Meder, Lakewood, Ohio; Lt. Dean E. Hallmark, Dallas, Tex., and Sgt. Harold A. Spatz, Lebo, Kas.

Nip Officer Little Mixed Up About Bomb

With 38th Division, Northern Luzon, P. I., Aug. 23.—(P)—"Have you heard about the atomic bombs being used in the war?" American officers asked Japanese Lt. Col. Shizume Sushimi at a mountain surrender conference.

"Where did we use it against you?" the enemy officer asked eagerly.

"You must have your signals crossed," one American told him. "We were the ones who used it."

The Japanese colonel seemed dumfounded. Maj. Richard Jeffers, Terre Haute, Ind., related, and told the Americans he understood Japan had such a weapon nearly perfected when he left the homeland.

Army Offers 252 War Plants To Industry As Contribution Toward Civilian Employment

Washington, Aug. 23.—(P)—The OPA says: "You'll pay for the new consumer durable goods—like washing machines—the price you would have paid before the war, or very little higher."

This was the rule laid down today by the agency to keep prices from getting out of hand. It was one of the most important statements to come from the government in the whole rush to change over to peace.

OPA Boss Chester Bowles said that at pre-war prices for the new durable goods, manufacturers and everyone else down to the retail stores "can look forward to excellent profits based on a high sales volume."

In its first postwar pricing of consumer durable goods, OPA ordered 1942 ceilings on household washing machines, ironers and aluminum kitchen ware.

Bowles said: "So that each family will be able to buy a new washing machine or ironer to fit its needs, its purse and its preference, we are requiring manufacturers to turn out the same proportion of low-price units as they made during pre-war years."

Bowles believes washing machines and aluminum kitchen ware should reach the stores in quantity this fall. Production of ironers will be slower.

Meanwhile, industry got a big nudge to produce.

Washington, Aug. 23.—(P)—The Army offered 252 war plants to industry today. Those plants could make a lot of civilian goods and plenty of civilian jobs.

By declaring the government-owned plants surplus—no longer needed for tanks, radar, airplane engines and shells—the Army thus provided a $1,500,000,000 contribution toward the government's goal of full employment.

Under White House pressure for speedy disposal, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation prepared to go all out in pushing their sale or lease to private manufacturers.

The $1,500,000,000 figure is what the plants cost to build—they'll undoubtedly go much cheaper.

It was the British offering to date of potential capacity to fill the country's pent-up demand for goods.

But for the average man and woman, the reconversion spotlight was on transportation. More controls were coming off.

On Nov. 1, it was ruled, stores, laundries and other businesses may make as many deliveries as their trucks can handle with unlimited gasoline.

Thus will end one of the housewife's prime annoyances of the war—twice-a-week deliveries of all but the most perishable stuffs, milk every other day, bread three times weekly. Wholesale deliveries will go back to normal, too.

And in time for Labor Day's vacation rush—the ODT told railroaders they could restore regular seasonal "holiday" trains to seashore, mountains and resorts.

ODT lifted, also, its ban on trains which run less than 35 per cent full. Some 50 trains may thus be put back. ODT cautioned that some lines simply may not have the cars to spare from hauling soldiers.

There was more good news. Civilians will be able to buy household appliances months sooner, in most cases, than was expected a month ago.

So disclosing, WPB offered a rough time-table: Electric ranges by December. Refrigerators off rationing by mid-October.

Unofficially, production men predicted also that mending of clothing and textiles would start their return to stores in perhaps two months.

Hand-over-first buying—by housewives long starved of cotton garments, sheets and children's clothes—may delay the effect on some acutely scarce items. But not longer than the end of the year.

But not everything was rosy (Turn to Page Nine)

Capital Gives Gen. deGaulle Big Reception

Washington, Aug. 23.—(P)—A crowd of spectators ignored a mild summer shower today to applaud Gen. Charles de Gaulle as he moved his headquarters from the White House to nearby official guest quarters in Blair House.

The president of the Provisional French government who arrived Wednesday, waved to the crowd as he mounted the steps to his new headquarters shortly after 9 a. m. He was expected to return to the executive mansion during the day to resume talks with President Truman.

Accompanying the French general were George T. Summerlin, state departmental protocol chief, and Brig. Gen. Sumner Waite of the U. S. Army.

The statement yesterday of a British foreign office commentator that British and Chinese troops would administer French Indo-China immediately after its liberation because France currently was not "in a physical position" to do so was believed to have boosted Indo-China to a major discussion topic on the Truman-De Gaulle agenda.

De Gaulle is expected to ask Mr. Truman to outline the United States view on the potentially-troublesome matter.

DOCUMENT TO BE SIGNED ON BOARD SUPER-BATTLESHIP MISSOURI IN BAY OF TOKYO

Japan Meanwhile Appeals for Permission to Send Vessels to Ill and Starving Garrisons On Various Isolated Islands

PRISONERS TO BE EVACUATED FROM CAMPS

By the Associated Press

Manila, Aug. 23.—Conquered Japan and the conquering Allies will formally end the war August 31 by signing the surrender document on Tokyo Bay aboard the superbattleship Missouri, which only a month ago was hurling 16-inch shells into the Japanese homeland.

General MacArthur announced these final details today, while his headquarters disclosed actual capitulation in the field is proceeding in advance of the official ceremony.

Surrender of several thousand Japanese in northern Luzon was arranged yesterday, despite "adamant" opposition of their commander, and similar negotiations were moving ahead on Mindanao and Cebu.

Japan meanwhile appealed for permission to send ships to ill and starving garrisons on Marcus Island and "various isolated islands in the south," adding that food on Marcus, 1200 miles southeast of Tokyo, would be exhausted in two more days.

Tokyo also messaged MacArthur's headquarters that Japanese Red Cross workers aided by Swiss and Swedish legations are preparing to visit Japan's seven major prisoner-of-war camps Friday to assist in evacuating prisoners and civil internees to embarkation points or merely plan their later transportation was not clear.

MacArthur himself will land at Tokyo's Atsugi airport Tuesday, weather permitting, along with thousands of airborne occupation troops. On the same day, marines and sailors will occupy the great Yokosuka naval base in Tokyo Bay. Later—the date was not designated—thousands of troops will land in the Sagami Bay occupation zone.

The Japanese have been ordered, meantime, to evacuate all key defense in the initial occupation zone, and to surrender all ships and submarines at sea to Allied ports.

Imperial headquarters again today radioed to MacArthur that Japanese were encountering serious difficulties in China due to "the activities of irregular forces, bandits and disturbances of mobs."

It made a similar report four days ago. MacArthur replied that he had forwarded the complaint to China.

In spite of our utmost efforts to avoid calamities of war, the situation in China has not been improved," said today's message. It asked MacArthur to reconsider his order disarming the Japanese army in China.

One of the occupation forces' first acts in Japan will be the release of an officially estimated 32,000 prisoners of war, detained in Nippon.

Approximately 100 American Red Cross workers are attached to initial landing force, as are Australian Red Cross and Australian Comforts Fund representatives. They will administer to an estimated 7,000 Americans, 14,000 British, 5,000 to 8,000 Australians, 5,000 Dutch and 1,000 Canadians in Japanese PW camps.

Adm. William F. Halsey, Jr.'s Third Fleet conducted a big air show within a few hours steaming time of Japan yesterday. More than 1,000 carrier planes from the U. S. and British fleets participated.

Japan's Domei agency—which has broadcast most of the occupation news hours or days ahead of MacArthur's announcements—said the initial occupation force would be 50,000 to 60,000. It also reiterated that initial landings would be on the Sagami Bay occupation zone.

Sunday, although MacArthur's radioed instructions to the Japanese government indicated first occupation forces would fly in on Tuesday, with him.

On Okinawa, 750 miles from Tokyo, 2,500 American fliers were prepared for the greatest aerial operation of the war—the landing of thousands of occupation troops on Atsugi's airfield, only 20 miles from Tokyo.

All occupation troops will be fully equipped for combat, as a precaution, whereas Japanese gendarmes who will police the occupation zone will be unarmed.

Z. M. de Carvalho, Naval Expert, Dies In South America

A letter received this morning from Laura Magno de Carvalho, of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, brought to their many Warren friends the news of the death of her husband, Z. Magno de Carvalho, commander in the Brazilian navy.

Cmdr. Magno de Carvalho and his family spent four years in Warren, residing at 404 Poplar street. He was a member of a Brazilian navy purchasing commission and ordnance inspector for orders placed by his government with the National Forge and Ordnance plant at Irvine.

Besides his business interests, he was active in many phases of community affairs and events. A member of the Kiwanis Club, he was a director at the time of leaving for Brazil last December and had worked diligently on the club's Home Front News and other community projects. He was affiliated with the Gracian Society and had served it first as secretary and then as president. He and his wife were both members of Warren Players Club and the Warren Concert Association and the entire family regularly attended St. Joseph's church.

Altoona Plans For Suitable Memorial

Altoona, Aug. 23.—With the end of the war, serious consideration is being given to a proposal to erect a suitable memorial, not only to the soldiers of the late conflict, but to those of all wars who went out from Altoona. While the mayor and city councilmen take the view that it should be in the hands of the community at large they will give every possible cooperation to the project.

It was brought up at a meeting of council by Councilman Jacob Weber, who has two sons and a son-in-law in the army, and he advocated the acquisition of the famed cricket field and the erection of a stadium, which, he deemed advisable, could be made to include a public library. The city has a library but it has no permanent home, being housed for a number of years in one of the junior high school buildings. The cricket field is owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad and it is located but four blocks below the main business district of the city.

(4) The people should disregard "childish rumors" and place "absolute reliance in the above authorities."

(5) The people through their village heads will be notified of all developments.

Rules of conduct after occupation included:

(1) The people should "refrain from individually approaching the occupation troops. However, when approached by a member of the occupation troops, the people should display courtesy and the proper attitude."

To prevent misunderstanding through difference of language, it was suggested that all neighborhood associations and villages be equipped with English-speaking persons.

The people should not abandon their homes and should not become "agitated" as to means of travel, as the occupation forces will not on duty.

Judge Wade Freed Killer Of Game Birds

Erie, Aug. 23.—R. D. Goff Tuesday in county court was found not guilty of larceny which grew out of the killing of two game stag roosters owned by C. B. Lamoreau, November 17, 1944.

Judge Allison D. Wade, Warren county, specially presiding, made the ruling after hearing the case without a jury.

Goff admitted killing the exhibition roosters but said he had only done so because they were a neighborhood nuisance, defacing cars and attacking children and fowl. Goff contended he had abated a nuisance but that when he did find out who owned them he offered to pay. When he was told they were $50 a piece he did not, he said, pay. Stated Judge Wade: "Where there is an honest mistake, although a mistake, there is no crime."

Heifer Calf Stolen Near Spring Creek

Titusville, Aug. 23.—County Detective J. Floyd Van Winkle is investigating the theft of a 250-pound heifer from Mrs. M. Luce, who lives at Slateland on the Spring Creek road about two miles north of the city.

Mrs. Luce told the detective that the calf, which had been chained to a post in the yard of her home, was missing Saturday morning, but she thought the calf might have strayed, so did not immediately report the loss.

Later, when the calf had not been found, she recalled that a car had stopped on the road about 200 yards from the house on Friday night, but that she had thought nothing of it at the time. Mr. Van Winkle's investigation found tracks showing that the calf had been led to the side of the road where the car had been parked. The calf had not been found yesterday.

Document To Be Signed On Board The Super-Battleship Missouri In Bay of Tokyo

MacArthur's occupation-surrender instructions to the Japanese, announced to the press at a mid-night session, stipulated that: Effective at 6 p. m. Friday (5 a. m. Friday, Eastern War Time) all planes, including civilian, must be grounded except a very few necessary for communications; ships must be maintained in operational order but must not be damaged or moved, except that 100-tonners or smaller may carry supplies in Tokyo bay; all ships at sea must report their positions, turn on searchlights at night, and make for the nearest Allied port; all submarines must surface, show lights at night and make for the nearest designated port; all prisoners of war camps must be specially marked and all prisoners must be safeguarded.

By 6 p. m. Saturday, Tokyo bay must be cleared of mines and navigational aids restored; port personnel must remain at their stations; all vessels must be immobilized and disarmed and all coastal defenses must be made inoperative, including removing of breechlocks from all coastal guns.

By 6 p. m. Sunday, a Japanese pilot boat must meet U. S. naval forces 20 miles from "O" island, at the entrance to Sagami Bay, and escort them into the bay. By 6 p. m. Monday, Yokosuka naval base must be prepared for occupation and Japanese combat units must be evacuated from occupation zones. MacArthur further ordered that suitable accommodations were to be prepared for him and his staff, and that the Japanese were to meet his staff with 125 competent interpreters. Japan today asked MacArthur to permit limited ship movements "after the prescribed hour" because "there may be found with in Japanese waters some motor sailing vessels of more than 100 tons not provided with radio equipment," which accordingly would not have received the Allied instructions via Tokyo.

Few Unemployment Claims Are Filed At Local Office

Reports from Erie, Corry and other places to the effect that there has been a rush to file unemployment compensation claims find no echo in the local USE office. Manager David Levine stated this morning that the load has increased but little over the average since the surrender of Japan. "When they come in," said Mr. Levine "we have jobs for them and those who desire can go to work immediately. We have demand right now for many women in local plants and as for men the orders for men in local industry is such that we cannot get enough men to fill the jobs we have listed. In construction work we could use 50 men right now on the road job near Tidioute. The Faho Construction Company is paying good money and for men who like out of door work there is a good opportunity.

One of the larger plants which shut down on August 16th, following the Jap surrender has resumed work with a fair sized force and it is getting ready to take on contracts that will keep them on the jump.

One or two plants have gone on a 40 hour week which gives the employees plenty to do and with the war rush out of the way their forces can be maintained.

Merchants of the city report that business is excellent and there has been no diminution of buying in the stores. Stocks are gradually being enlarged and some scarce articles are coming through already in small quantities.

Cigarettes On Counters Slow Up Hoarding

Reports from about town are that the appearance of cigarettes on the shelves and counters of various stores have had a deterrent effect on the hoarding of the fags. During the period of great scarcity of the smokes many persons, male and female went from store to store buying wherever and whatever cigarettes they could get. This has been slowed down at present and not so many "hunters" are out at present.

Dealers this week received more cigarettes than they have had in some time and they say that if the public will only buy as they need the supply should be sufficient for all.

In the displays of the smokes about town there are a number of brands that are somewhat strange such as Lions, Ramesses, Lady Hamilton and in one place Sweet Caporal appeared. Some of the brands, such as Chiseas, have won a recognized place and patrons of the stores are getting to ask for them.

A LONG ROAD

The publication, Hardware Trade, has cautioned retailers that the lifting of WPB restrictions doesn't mean that merchandise will immediately start moving toward their shelves. And since the rest of us are watching those shelves, perhaps the word of caution is worth passing along.

WPB, as Hardware Trade points out, gave manufacturers permission to begin producing some 1200 individual items in 400 types of civilian goods when it revoked blanket order M-126, which applied to iron and steel. But WPB only gave manufacturers the green light. Their job of getting out of war production enough to give peacetime manufacturing some attention, of getting plants into shape and finding material and labor, takes time.

The result of that delay will mean annoyance rather than real hardship to most consumers. But to millions of war workers who will be released at the end of the war, prolonged delay could be much more than annoying. Reconversion will be difficult enough at best without adding acute social unrest and discontent arising from misinformation or ineptitude on the part of either industry or the government agencies affected.

The history of reconversion to date has not been a particularly shining one. Granting the difficulties, it is time that those responsible summoned all their effort and efficiency to prepare for as rapid and painless a changeover as possible. Bickering and slipshod performance could bring incalculably bad results.

POLIO PREVENTION

An experiment which the nation, and the world, is watching eagerly is being conducted in Rockford, Ill. An Army bomber was used there a few days ago to spray some 1650 pounds of the new war-developed insecticide known as DDT in an effort to cope with a poliomyelitis problem with which Rockford is confronted—just as many communities have been confronted in recent years.

Polio still is one of the diseases about which medical science knows relatively little. But there is strong evidence to support the belief that insects—particularly houseflies—are among the worst, if not the worst, carriers of the contagion. So the primary purpose of the spraying experiment was to eliminate insects from Rockford as effectively as possible.

If the experiment is productive of results, it still will leave unanswered many questions in connection with polio. But if it does prove effective as a measure of prevention, it will represent a long stride toward greater security of health. It will be ground gained toward the victory which almost certainly will come sooner or later in the war against polio. It will mean lives saved while the fight for complete conquest continues.

HIROHITO PRESENTS A PROBLEM

The vast reverence which the Japanese people have for their God-emperor is being demonstrated daily as the Tokyo government proceeds cautiously with the dangerous task of implementing its capitulation to the Allies—dangerous because the militarists are against it, and because the general public is undergoing a terrible shock, having been led to believe that Nippon was winning the war.

Now the reverence has nothing to do with Hirohito's capabilities. It would still be there if he were a moron. It rests in the fact that the people believe they are ruled by a divine being—a living God. They've believed it since 660 B. C. when, according to legend, the First Emperor ascended the throne. The Mikado is the last word in the life of the Jap. Actually Hirohito has been more or less of a figurehead—but even the greatest and most progressive of his subjects approach his presence with diffidence.

It's all very well to shout "Hang the Mikado"—as more than a few are doing—but it would be a perilous experiment to commit such violence of the primitive ideas of Japan.

Moreover, there are a lot of Allied folk who believe we should be outraging our own ideals if we struck down the head of a religion.

If the people of Japan want to continue the Shinto religion, we can't stop them by force. We can't stop them by removing their emperor, because Shinto is bigger than he is.

The best answer to all this probably is that if western ideas and ideals are presented to the Japanese people in the most favorable light, we may win them over to our way of thinking.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Songs for a Better World

We were sitting around the embers of Ed Crumple's bar-becue last Saturday night, finishing our beer and hot dogs, while Ed strummed the guitar... picking out old, friendly songs.

Soon everyone was singing. The harmony wasn't too good... but the spirit was—a spirit of friendship and good humor.

And it made me think how music—music of the people—overcomes barriers of prejudice and intolerance. A Yankee folksong or an English carol or a Southern melody—they all speak a common language of the heart... bind folks together... help us forget our grudges.

From where I sit, music can help to make the whole world kin. Maybe we ought to have a lot more of it... informal sings around the fire, and in the home. And it's sure true that a mellow glass of beer fits into the picture. It just naturally goes with that kind of music.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Kiwanis Club Addressed By AAF Chaplain

Chaplain Allie Davidson, member of the Warren Kiwanis Club on military leave and just recently returned from duty on Ie Shima and Okinawa, was the speaker for Wednesday's luncheon-meeting of the club, held at the Hotel Carver. Captain Davidson, who arrived at Okinawa just after it was taken from the Japs and still a "hot spot", had many interesting experiences and anecdotes to relate. These dealt with his own military and religious experiences; also those of many of his pilots returning to Okinawa bases from forays over Tokyo. His collection of souvenirs included some wooden shoes worn by natives of the island.

There was considerable discussion of next week's picnic at Oakview Park, when members will bring their families for a real, old fashioned basket affair. There will be races and contests for prizes, entertainment for old and young. Pioneers will assemble about 2:30 p. m. and supper will be at six. Beverages and dessert are to be provided at the grounds. Dick Ross, program chairman of the club, is in charge of general arrangements with many others assisting in the details.

Guests at the week's session were Richard Lott, Kiwanian from Washington, D. C.; Edwin Larson, Kiwanian and secretary of the Tallahassee, Fla., club; C. H. Lindberg, Kiwanian and past president of the local club with Jack Lindberg, of Mechanicsburg; Harry C. Eiselein, Ellwood City; Mr. Armo-gost, Kiwanis president from Davenport, Iowa; Mr. Sellers, guest of A. N. McCausland; Attorney W. S. Clark, Warren.

Final Appeal For National War Fund Coming This Fall

The final appeal for the National War Fund will be made this fall, with the budget set at $115,000,000 in order to finance member agencies to liquidate or the end of 1946, according to advices today to Edward W. Johnson, president of Warren county war fund which raises the funds for National War Fund in Warren county.

Mr. Johnson stated that the National War Fund had advised him that V-J Day does not signify immediate end to the work member agencies of the fund, with the exception of American Field Service.

USO and USO-Camp Shows must carry on their programs for our service men until demobilization is an actuality, Mr. Johnson said. While it is expected there will be shifts and reductions in the USO budget, the work in the Pacific will have to be maintained at a high level and USO-Camp Shows will face expanded programs for men who are in forces of occupation.

United Seamen's Service will also have to continue its work while the merchant fleets are engaged in bringing men and material home, he said.

No immediate change is in sight for the budget of the foreign relief agencies which are members of the National War Fund, Johnson continued. He pointed out that President Truman, in his report to the people after his return from Potsdam, had made it clear that the people of this nation have a responsibility to aid the war victims of those nations which fought with us.

President Truman said:

"If we let Europe go cold and hungry, we may lose some of the foundations of order on which the hope for world peace must rest."

Mr. Johnson also pointed out that peace in the Pacific also now makes it possible to render increased aid to the Philippines and to give all possible aid to China, both in great need. In its appeal this fall, the National War Fund will urge the American people to "Be Generous In Victory".

Brokenstraw Valley Garden Club Holds Picnic and Meeting

Youngsville, Aug. 23.—On Tuesday evening Garden Club members held a picnic supper at tables placed on the lawn at the C. C. Johnson home. For a program, a tour of these members' gardens was enjoyed: C. C. Johnson, E. E. Hendrickson, O. M. Borton, Arthur Streeter and J. W. Hamilton.

The tour revealed a wide variety of well cultivated vegetables, including some unusually fine displays of sweet potatoes, okra, cantaloupes, brussels, sprouts, peppers and cucumbers. The three flower boxes at the entrance to town were also inspected. Many of the gardens contained fine arrangements of flowers, with special mention of gladioli.

At the business meeting, held following the tour at the home of C. C. Johnson, it was decided to enter displays in the flower and vegetable show of the Clarendon Garden Club, at Clarendon, to be held Saturday, August 25th. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hamilton offered to take over any displays which members of the club decided to enter, and these entries should be at the Hamilton home on West Main street by nine o'clock Saturday morning, August 25th.

Plans were also made for the exhibit at the Youngsville Community Fair on September 6, 7 and 8th, when the local club will compete with other clubs in the county. Each club will be given a $38 foot space. It was decided to make the Youngsville space into a miniature garden. Any club member having small plants which could be used in this exhibit are asked to get in touch with Mrs. C. C. Johnson, president of the club.

A committee of ladies volunteered to trim the grass around the Mead monument and flower box on West Main street, on Wednesday. Four new members were added.

The September 18th meeting will be a picnic at Hendrickson's camp at Allegheny Springs. In case of bad weather the meeting will be held at their home on East Main street.

Can Without Sugar

In spite of the current short supply of sugar, preservation of fruits by canning or freezing is still possible and practical, according to Margaret A. Reed, home economics extension representative in this county. The amount of peaches you can this year need not depend on your sugar allowance, she says, since peaches may be canned satisfactorily with little or no sugar. The processing of the food and successful sealing according to directions will insure a good product next winter. She continues with these instructions:

Choose ripe, fresh, firm fruit and don't use any with decayed spots. Wash and peel peaches. To peel them easily place a few peaches at a time in a wire basket or cheesecloth, dip in boiling water for a minute, then dip quickly in cold water. Remove skin and halve or slice them, removing pit.

To can peaches without sugar, cook the fruit in its own juice until heated through but not soft. If the fruit is not juicy, add just enough water to keep it from sticking to the pan. Pack the hot peaches in clean hot jars, and fill with the liquid, leaving one-half inch headspace. Drive out air by running a silver knife around the sides of the jar. The second method is to place the peeled peaches in the hot jars without any cooking. The jars are then filled with hot water to a half inch of the top. A small slice of lemon placed in the top of each jar will help prevent discoloration.

If it is possible to can peaches with a limited amount of sugar, corn syrup may be substituted for 1/3 of the sugar, or honey for 1/2 of the sugar.

Candlelight Rites in Nazarene Church Unite Well Known Clarendon Couple

At seven o'clock last evening in the First Church of the Nazarene, the Rev. Gordon V. Woods united in marriage Ruth Esther Klenck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Klenck, Clarendon, and Pvt. Harold E. Walchli, of Oak Ridge, Tenn., son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans W. Walchli, also of Clarendon.

The double ring ceremony was performed by candlelight against a background of palms and white gladioli. Besides traditional wedding numbers, Eleanor Emery, cousin of the bride, played "Ave Maria", "O Promise Me" and "Liebestraum", with "You Are My Poem of Love" and "At Dawning" during the ceremony. She was also accompanist for another cousin of the bride, Mrs. Frank Flood, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because".

The bride was given in marriage by her father and attended by her sister, Dorothy, as maid of honor; Lois Bloomquist and Mary Freund, bridesmaids; Sgt. Richard Newton, of Bradford, stationed at Oak Ridge, was best man and ushers were the bridegroom's brother and father, Randall and Hans Walchli. The bridal gown of white was fashioned with long sleeves ending in points over the wrist, satin bodice with high neckline in a deep yoke edged with lace, and a full skirt of marquisette over net, ending in a long train. Her long veil was fastened to a Juliet cap with orange blossoms, her gold cross was a gift of the bridegroom and her bouquet was of white roses and baby's breath. Full-skirted frocks of the attendants, in blue, pink and aqua respectively, were made of soft taffeta, a square neckline accented by the long bodice. The maid of honor carried pink glads, the bridesmaids yellow. Matching flowers in their hair and gold crosses completed their ensembles. Mothers of the principals wore white rose corsages, Mrs. Klenck with a black and white sheer and Mrs. Walchli with rose crepe.

Seventy-five guests were invited for the reception which followed at the YWCA, where tables were decorated with candles and flowers and presided over by Margaret Whiteshot, cousin of the bride, of Warren; Emma Walchli, aunt of the bridegroom, Wellsville, N. Y.; Frances Hartung, college roommate of the bride from Easton. On the bride's table was a three-tiered cake topped with a military bridal couple.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Carl Lejonhult and daughters, Carolyn and Marilyn, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Young, Hornell, N. Y.; G. Walchli, Emma and Dorothea Walchli, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Walchli, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Walchli and daughters, Margaret Ann and Marilyn, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walchli, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Walchli, Mrs. Madeline Walchli, Mrs. Jess Bement, all of Wellsville, N. Y.; Mrs. Ella Brands, Scio, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nelson, Youngsville; Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Mason and daughter, Esther Jean, Spring Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Will Klenck and son, Allen, Jamestown, N. Y.; Frances Hartung, Easton.

The couple will visit in Washington, D. C., en route to Oak Ridge, Tenn., where they will be at home after August 23. For traveling, the bride chose a black suit, white accessories and white rose corsage.

Mrs. Walchli was graduated from the local high school in 1941 and received her bachelor of arts in education at Pennsylvania State College in June, 1945. She has been honored with showers given by pupils of the John Harris

IN THE HOUR OF TRIUMPH

Behind us lie 3½ years of deadly struggle in which, with God's help, we have prevailed.

So, today, we celebrate a victory.

After the celebration, what lies ahead?

For most of us, the outlook is a bright one. If we will simply use the brains, the will, the energy, the enterprise . . . the materials and resources . . . with which we won our war, we can't fail to win the peace and to make this the richest, happiest land the world has known.

For most of us, the years ahead are bright with promise. But for others of us—and, ironically enough, their part in bringing victory was a major one—the years to come must bear a different look.

In America today are hundreds of thousands of injured men. Men with neatly pinned-up sleeves and trousers. Blinded men. Men with clever iron hooks instead of hands. Worst of all, men with hurt and darkened minds.

These men need our help. Helping them will cost a great deal of money. We can help them best by buying Victory Bonds.

Far away from America today are millions of Americans. As we would be, they're on fire to get back—to their wives, to the children some of them have never seen, to their jobs.

These men need our help. Helping them will cost a great deal of money. And we can help them best by buying Victory Bonds.

This is our day of triumph. But it's theirs too—the injured men, the men who are still far away.

Let's not forget them, in our just rejoicing. And the one way we can help most to care for our wounded . . . to bring our veterans home . . . to give them a fresh start in the country they fought for . . . to care for the families of those who died before the victory was won . . . is simply this:

Buy all the Bonds you can. Keep all the Bonds you buy.

on the domestic scene:
First, farm leaders and federal officials saw signs of a possible land boom. The rush into agriculture after World War I ruined many veterans and other farm buyers. It pushed prices too high.

Second, OPA said the present skimpy sugar rations will last through 1945. But a senate group began to plug for smaller shipments overseas.

Third, a congressional inquiry was threatened—by Representative Brown (R-Ohio)—if the armed forces do not release more doctors to care for civilian ill.

And a full fledged row between agencies sprang up on this question: Should postwar homes be under price ceilings?
Fearing sky-high prices on the first new homes, OPA says yes. Hugh Potter, the new construction coordinator, says no. A flood of new home building, he holds, would quash inflation.

Creola Steals Home In Tenth To Break Tie and Help Beat Corry By Score of 6 to 4

Nick Creola's clean steal of home in the tenth inning broke a 4-4 tie and enabled the National Forge to continue its mastery over the Corry Merchants as they swept their fifth consecutive triumph 6 to 4 on Loveland Field last night. Emmy Morrison's run on Rosequist's long fly to deep center was anti-climax.

"Dazzler" Hines, Forge mainstay, bested Lefty Kiep, imported from Erie in a tight pitchers battle. The local slab artist pitched one of his masterpieces against a star-studded Corry nine, holding the opposition to six scattered hits and striking out nine enemy batters. Kiep also twirled nice ball, but he weakened in the ninth and tenth innings allowing the Forgers to score 3 times in the ninth and twice in the tenth to lose the verdict.

After scoring once in the first to take the lead, the Forgers were tied by Corry in the third when Kiep singled, was forced to second as Hines walked Kinney and scored on Young's base knock. From this point on, both pitchers settled down to pitch shutout ball until the eighth when Corry broke the tie. With runners on first and second, Hines elected to pass Group, Cassett upset the strategy by pounding out a long triple to clear the sacks and send Corry ahead by a 4 to 1 count.

Warren deadlocked the issue in the top half of the ninth after two were gone. Wolfe and Morrison hit safely, advanced on Rosequist's bunt, and after Kiep bore down to fan Nate and Pawk, Feihman stepped into the breach, singling sharply to left to plate the runners. Feihman took second on the throw to the plate and when the catcher tossed wildly into center field he continued on to home to tie the game.

In the tenth, Kiep caused his own downfall by passing Corry first man up. Emmy Morrison got an infield hit both runners moving up on "Elmo" Wolfe's sacrifice. On the squeeze play with Rosy at bat, Creola slid in safely as the catcher failed to hold Kiep's fast one. Morrison scored late on Nate's line drive to left to make the count 6 to 4.

Hines left no doubt as to the outcome of the fracas as he mowed down the enemy batters with ease in the tenth frame.

"Elmo" Wolfe, enjoying a short stay home, Morrison and Creola were the giants in the Forge attack each smacking out two hits.

Elk Alleys Being Placed in Condition

A representative of the Brunswick-Balke Co. is at the Elk Club putting the bowling alleys in shape for the season which will get under way within the next three weeks. Officers have announced that the alleys will be opened for practice on September 8th, and the league will get under way September 16th. With many of the hundred members in the service returning home, Elk bowlers are anticipating one of the best seasons in years.

Forgers Meet Franklin At State Tonight

The National Forge baseballers return to the State Hospital diamond tonight for their next-to-the last meeting at North Warren. Opposing the NFO's tonight will be the Franklin "kid" team, a group of sixteen and seventeen-year olds chosen by the Franklin News-Herald as the "pick of the crop" in that section.

The Forge was chosen by the newspaper as the outstanding team in the upper part of the state and therefore the "kids" were matched for the meeting.

Dick Hines will probably do the mound chores for the locals, while the opposing moundsman has not yet been named.

The Franklin game and next Thursday's encounter with Joey Nagle's Jamestown All-Stars will round out the Hospital's 1945 diamond attractions.

Thomas Nine Defeated By Grace Meth.

THOMAS—sport . . . Behind the pitching of Rader, who scattered nine hits, the Grace M. B. defeated the Thomas Coupling 9 to 4 last night on Beatty Field before a large crowd. By virtue of their win the Grace outfit moves into the play-offs for the ship meeting the strong St. Joe YMCA-Church League Champions outfit in a two out of three series.

A three run explosion in the first inning and two more runs in the third clinched the game for the Grace boys. However, the Thomas team struggled desperately to stay in the running by chasing across three markers in the sixth to almost knot the count.

Sterling defensive play by third sacker Baldensperger choked off several scoring attempts by the losers.

High Gridders Start Season Drills Today

Over 170 football enthusiasts reported to Beatty Field this afternoon for the first grid season of the 1945 season. J. B. Leidig, head coach, assisted by assistant coaches J. A. Massa and Harry Hutchings, sent the boys through light drills in preparation for the opening game with Youngville on Saturday, September 1st, at Russell Field.

The gridgers received initial instructions and sweated it out for several hours, going through warming-up exercises and calisthenics. As the boys start getting in trim, signal drills and regular scrimmage sessions will be held.

Highlighting the afternoon were some of the more experienced players who are working for varsity berths. Bob Gerardi and Jim Scallie, only remaining lettermen, are the two top prospects, while Louie Bonace, Neil Simmons, Jack Hamilton, Al McNally, and two newcomers, Jim Reynolds from Corry and Ronnie Thompson from Youngville High are also promising first eleven players.

Feller Is Back To Take His Regular Turn

Cleveland, Aug. 23.—(P)—Bob Feller, strikeout king of the major leagues, came back to Cleveland today—back to the scene of some of his greatest pitching triumphs.

The 26-year-old fireballer, released yesterday by the navy after 44 months duty, arrived by plane from American League pennant contenders.

To reporters who met him at the airport Feller said:

"I think I'll surprise a lot of fans who expect me to fill the bases with walks. I've been working out every day at Great Lakes and am exceptionally well pleased with my control."

Recalling that the Detroit Tigers defeated him 2-0 in the third last game of the 1940 season, the game which clinched the pennant for Detroit and stranded the Indians in second, Bob said: "If I can dump them out of first place tomorrow night it would do me a lot of good."

Feller said he was ready to take his regular turn every fourth day.

Behind the Lines

By JAM

To give local fans an idea of what is being done in the Shenango Valley for their growing boys the following is taken from the Sharon paper:—"The junior league at present operates three active groups. The first, called the 'B' division, begins at 10 years of age and offers eligibility up to 14 years. The junior division takes care of lads up to 15, and the senior group runs up to 17 years of age. Next year the baseball loop is to be expanded to take care of boys up to 19 years. The league is operated in co-operation with the American Legion and the Legion posts sponsor teams in their particular communities."

Wesleyville, a live-wire community, east of Erie is staging a four day Community Festival as a benefit for their Memorial Athletic Center. They are months ahead of out towns and cities and are setting an excellent example for others to follow.

Just exactly what "Bill" Rice is saying concerning Warren's proposed Living War Memorial I do not know. However, the citizens of Warren are so sure that Rice is familiar with the inadequate recreational facilities here and his background is such that no better individual could be selected for the task of presenting the plans to the various clubs in Warren.

Every community has sons among our fighting forces. Thousands of these men—and women have died because we, in America, have neglected to provide the facilities and the programs which would have made them physically and mentally better fitted for the rigors of war.

Several thousands were rejected because of our failure to provide them with sound health programs. The vast majority of those who were able to pass the physical requirements for military service had not attained that peak of physical efficiency which would permit a stepped up training program, and thus a more rapid participation in actual combat were able to make and consolidate early gains, which were won back only at a heavy cost in blood and suffering.

Our men and women fought for definite principles. Many will never come back. They died for those principles, gave their lives so that the loved ones they left behind may continue to enjoy the American way of life.

To those who won't come back—and to the living as well, Community War Memorials should be dedicated. They should be LIVING war memorials—ones that will serve youth, returning G. I. Joes, and G. I. Janes, and others in the community day after day, and year after year, thus serving to keep alive the memories and traditions of those who made the supreme sacrifices in defense of his country.

Phoenixville, Aug. 23.—(P)—Herb Pennock flexed a few long unused muscles, wound up and pitched against his Philadelphia Phillies. The one-time pitching great for the New York Yankees, currently general manager of the Phils, took a turn on the mound for one inning with the Valley Forge General Hospital nine yesterday. The Phils put together two singles and wild pitch to score one against Pennock. The Phils won the seven inning game, 4-1.

Forest Grove, Ore., Aug. 23.—(P)—Gene Shields, 45, one of the University of Oregon's all-time greats, was killed near here yesterday when a log rolled from a truck and crushed him at a timbering operation.

Winter Haven, Fla., Aug. 23.—(P)—Lt. Car Wood, Jr., has announced that he is entering a new powerful 91-cubic inch hydroplane in the Labor Day Regatta here in an effort to break existing world speed records for water craft.

ACCUSED

I've been accused of being a "Yes Man" . . . and come to think of it—I am! That is, I like to say "Yes" when people ask for a loan. Which is only logical, after all, for the more times I say "Yes" the more loans I make. And since making Personal Loans is my full-time business, that's mighty important to me.

*Usually I can say "Yes" in a hurry. But even when circumstances are unusual, I try to find a way to work out a deal. That's why Personal is so often able to make loans that others cannot.

*Of course—once in a while I can't find a way. That's natural. When that happens, I personally sit down with the customer in a private office and discuss the situation frankly, on a common sense basis.

Like most people, I don't believe in unnecessary borrowing . . . but when a loan is needed or to your advantage, I'll be glad to say "Yes". Anytime you need extra cash—see me, won't you? Right now, for instance. See me at American Finance Co., 218 Liberty St., second floor, over Lester Shoe Store Phone 285.

ally had assumed responsibility to accept the Japanese surrender there.

The surrender situation was further complicated today with the official Chinese announcement that Generals Chang Chi-Chung and Hsiung Shih-Hui, both high in the councils of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, had been appointed "to accept the Japanese surrender in Manchuria."

No explanation was given as to how this would be affected considering the fact the Japanese armies in Manchuria are surrendering piecemeal to the Russians.

Z. M. de Carvalho, Naval Expert, Dies in S. America

Residing with him in Warren were his wife and three children: Fernando Luis, who is a chemical engineering student at Notre Dame University; Carlos Eduardo and Laura Beatriz. Besides these he leaves two brothers and one sister in Brazil.

Lifelong resident of Rio de Janeiro, he entered the Brazilian Naval Academy in 1912. In addition to his naval commission he held degrees in civil engineering and law and was instructor of mathematics and Portuguese in that academy for some years. During World War I he commanded both a submarine and a destroyer, engaged in patrolling the South Atlantic.

Subsequent to that time he decided to specialize in ordnance and attended both the French and Italian naval academies to further his studies. He was at the time of his death one of the leading ordnance experts of the Brazilian navy.

Following the placing of ordnance orders in this country, his government sent him to Washington in 1939, and the family resided for a year in Chevy Chase, Md. They came to Warren in the early winter of 1940 and remained here until December 16, 1944.

farm income climbed to $11,000,000,000—a record high."

Anderson said that under full employment—that is, if unemployment does not exceed a minimum of about two million workers, including those on vacation and in process of changing jobs—agriculture might reasonably expect a net income of about nine billion dollars in 1950.

With seven million workers unemployed, he said, the agriculture situation would become serious, with net farm income dropping to about 6.5 billion dollars and farm prices falling well below parity levels.

Rich Is Opposed To Long Session

Washington, Aug. 23.—(P)—To Rep. Rich (R-Pa.) the "worst thing that could happen to business at this time" would be a prolonged session of congress.

Rich told a reporter that congress, after it reconvenes September 5, "should pass what laws are immediately necessary and then go home for the rest of the year and let business get its feet on the ground."

Otherwise, the Wollich wool manufacturer contended, "it would keep the country all stirred up at a time when we need calmness and confidence."

He said he opposed congressional consideration at this time of controversial social legislation, particularly such measures as the so-called "full employment" bill and expanded social security and health benefits.

118 Arrested In Dining Car Racket

New York, Aug. 23.—(P)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation announced today 118 men throughout the country had been arrested in connection with a dining car racket which cost two railroads more than $100,000 over a period of a year.

All of the men apprehended, E. E. Conroy, special agent in charge of the New York FBI office, said, were stewards, waiters or cooks employed by the New York Central and Erie Railroads on several of their best trains.

The scheme, based on manipulation of food and liquor checks, cost the railroads as much as $600 a single trip, Conroy said, adding that the victims were servicemen, elderly women and persons unfamiliar with dining car routine.

Conroy said the dining car stewards were the key men in the racket and split the money with waiters and cooks.

Evidence of the scope of the activities of the train crews, Conroy said, was obtained by FBI agents who worked as stewards with the crews on runs of several trains, including the Ohio State Limited and the Knickerbocker.

Contract cancellations reported to the sec. yesterday included Piper Aircraft Corporation, Lock Haven, Pa.

Even Strain of Conference Fails to Erase Truman Ease

Immediately after the dishes were cleared away, the president went to work on whatever dispatches required his personal attention. Press Secretary Charles G. Ross once remarked that "the president had a day's work done by 9 o'clock."

Mr. Truman still finds it difficult to get used to having secret service agents trail after him. At the same time, he has made close friends of them all, often remarking "they've got their jobs to do." Out of respect to his wishes, his secret service detail is kept to the very minimum.

strikers would not return "until the recall of employees, including World War Veterans, is made in strict conformity with seniority rights."

John Bohannon, plant manager, said the company acted under selective service regulations in re-employing veterans.

A second strike, at the Midvale Steel Company's plant at Nicetown, entered its third day today as the ranks of the workers who left their jobs because of the company's failure to pay them for the two-day victory holiday, Aug. 15 and 16, were increased.

Clerks, cafeteria workers and guards joined in the walkout yesterday.

The company made no statement.

Pension Fund
Of Police To Get Tidy Sum

Passing of an ordinance a few weeks ago by which a pension plan for the Warren Police Department was arranged will be in time to collect a share of the money collected by the state up to January 1, 1945. The money represents one-half of the net amount of the two per cent tax paid on casualty insurance premium on policies written in this state by companies whose headquarters are located elsewhere. It is allocated on the basis of the communities population and size of its police force.

Warren's police it is expected will receive about $2500. The fund also contains other sums which have been given by local manufacturing companies and friends of the police department. However no statement is available as to the money on hand.

At the last regular meeting of the Town Council a committee composed of two members of council, one citizen and two members of the police force were named to get the plan under way and to handle it. At the time of the passage of the ordinance Burgess Steber declined to sign the measure due to some features with which he took exception. It became a law by default.

Announcement that the money will be paid over to the various municipalities was made yesterday afternoon by Auditor General Wagner who announced his department will distribute $761,018 among municipal pension funds, and trust the 1947 legislature to provide for the additional expenses of administering the fund, although the 1945 assembly failed to do so.

Wagner said administration of the fund entails added personnel as well as additional duties for present employees of his department. "Because of the oversight on the part of the legislature," he stated.

The money now available is that collected up to last Jan. 1.
